

Adventure Collection - Who We Are...

Formed in September 2000, Adventure Collection is an eleven-member group of the world's leading independent active travel companies plus one educational member and one equipment provider. The members of Adventure Collection came together through a shared commitment of operating trips based on quality, experience, environmental responsibility and sustainable tourism. Each member specializes in 'experiential' travel, intimately connecting guests to the places, wildlife and cultures they visit.
